

Estado
de Coahuila

Secretaría de Educación

PROGRAMA NACIONAL DE INGLÉS

CUADERNO DE ACTIVIDADES

The Legend of the Nahual

 Read,  Number and  Write.

- A. () Five hundred years ago, a Nahual lived in the mountains of Mexico.
- B. () It hissed loudly at the villagers.
- C. () In the day the Nahual was a woman.
- D. () The villagers were very frightened.
- E. () In the night she changed into an enormous cobra with a huge mouth and flashing red eyes.

Answer Key: A) 1. B) 4. C) 2. D) 5. E) 3.

4th Grade
Unit: 8

Beginning, Middle and End

Activity 6

 Read,  Draw and  Write.

Mountains of Mexico

Woman

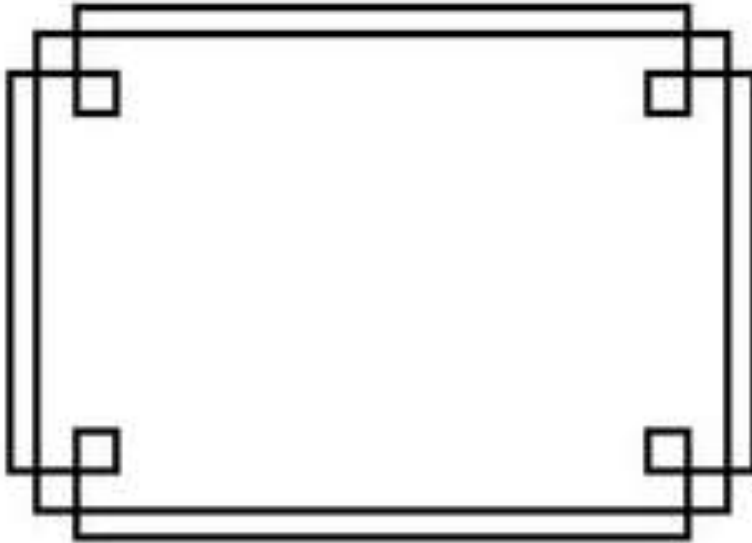

Cobra

Write the legend:

 Read,  Guess,  Draw and  Color.

1. The Greek Warriors had been trying to reach the wall around Troy for about ten years. Odysseus, a Greek general, had an idea. His plan was to build a beautiful and gigantic wooden horse...

2. The Aztec people sent their priests to ask Quetzalcoatl for help. He answered that he would go and bring them back this precious food. All the other gods used force, but he decided to use something more powerful: intelligence.

4th Grade
Unit: 8

Characters

Look, Read and Match/Connect.

Character

Legend

1) Horseman

2) A woman

3) Ants

4) The Greek warriors

a)The Wooden Horse of Troy.

b)The Weeping Woman.

c)The Headless Horseman.

d)The Legend of Maize.